INTERESTED IN VOLUNTEERING FOR THE WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES 2018:

The World Meeting of the Families 2018 will attract thousands of Irish and International pilgrims. Preparing for this event and seeing it through will only be possible with the generous assistance of many volunteers. Further details on volunteering are available at the World Meeting website:

CREATIVE LONGFORD/LONGFORD LIBRARY:

Longford County Archivist, Martin Morris, will give a unique insight into writing local history on December 2nd at 10am at Longford Library. Martin is an occasional lecturer with the Department of History in Maynooth University and was co-editor of the book 'Longford History and Society'. Martin will talk about what local history is, the importance of sources and how to use them, good historical writing in general and in particular examples of good writing. Cost €10. To reserve a place on both or one of these classes, email: longfordwritersgroup@gmail.com or: 086 1717925

BLOOD DONATION CLINIC: on Tuesday 5th, Wednesday 6th & Thursday 7th December from 4.30pm to 8pm in the Longford Arms.

MOTORISTS PRAYER - Last Sunday was a Day of Prayer for the victims of Road Traffic Accidents. A parishioner has asked us to publish this Motorists Prayer:

"Our Lady of the Wayside, for the sake of the Child you hold in your arms, take hold of my hand for the rest of the road. Jesus, Mary and Joseph be with us on our way. St.
Raphael be our guide, St. Christopher protect us. Amen."

CHOIRS: Many thanks to the Parish Choir and the Children's Choir for their great contribution to the parish.
The gift of music adds greatly to our celebrations in Church. We appreciate the time you give to rehearsing and performing in Church. The Parish Choir are in need of new members. Can you sing? Would you like to be more involved in the parish? Could you commit to the Parish Choir? You would be most welcome. Please contact Fr.
Tom, or Choir Director Bernadette Walsh. Remember Elvis, Dolly and Whitney started their careers in the local church choir!!!!

"He who sings prays twice" - St. Augustine.

TRAD FOR TROCAIRE: Joe Callaghan CCE are hosting a Trad for Trocaire session on Friday, 1st December 2017. There will be a Junior Session for younger members from 8.00 to 9.00 p.m. in the Community Centre, followed by a Senior Session at 9:30 p.m. in the Goldsmith Inn. Everyone welcome. Please show your support for Trocaire and all our young local musicians.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT - The Mulligan Sisters will sing at a charity concert on Dec. 9th @ 8.00pm in St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh in aid of M.S. Longford.

The concert will comprise Popular songs, Musical Theatre.

Irish Songs, Operatic Arias. Sacred, Arias and Festive Christmas favourites.

The style is cross-over to suit all musical tastes. It will be a great start to the Christmas season with songs such as 'O

Holy Night, Silent Night and other well known pieces. Come along to hear the three Sisters' unique blend of harmonies. It will be a night to enjoy.

Tickets on sale in Kenny's Clothes Shop, Longford, Lyons Ardagh and Ann Bannon/Farrell, Ardagh

MUSINGS - The greatest evil is that in our own hearts, but God is greater than our hearts. When we sin against our brother or sister we sin against God. Charles de Foucauld spoke of seeing Jesus in every person: 'Above all see Jesus in every person and consequently treat each one as an equal and as a brother or sister, but also with great humility, respect and selfless generosity.' The other person is the brother or sister for whom Jesus died.
