CEMETERY SUNDAY PRAYER

We pray for all who are buried in this graveyard. Draw all your children interred in this sacred ground to the paradise you have prepared for them Lord. Give them full stature in Christ in that place where there are no tears
May they have eternal rest, joy and peace with you.

We pray for those who help us in our losses. Lord when we are bereaved we rely on the goodness of people to help us through the pain and trauma. Today we pray and give thanks for our families, for our good neighbours and for our close friends. We pray for undertakers and gravediggers, for community organizations and volunteers, for the Gardaí and for the emergency services, for priests and parish personnel, for choirs and all who help us mourn with dignity. We also sincerely pray for all who work in hospices, hospitals and in the community; For all who show your compassionate, care and deep love to us in our pain. Bless them Lord.

A THOUGHT FOR HOLIDAY TIME

"The various forms of tourism offer to each person, according to their circumstances, opportunities to live aspects of Christian spirituality. Free time, leisure time, time for encountering nature and art, offer first of all the opportunity for deep meditation on the gift of creation, and a contemplative and liturgical response on the part of men and women. The opening pages of Genesis, the meditations on wisdom or the paschal vocation to hope for a new earth - these can shed light on the travels of the Christian tourist, helping him or her to better appreciate nature, and to engage with it in a way that better safeguards creation, in view of redemption." - Pontifical Council for Migrants and Displaced Persons.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS - Mark 5:21-43

Like this woman, have you had the experience of a cure, an improvement, a success, after a long period of nothing happening? What was that like for you? What made the difference? On that occasion was there anything different in you, in others, in the circumstances - something that paved the way for the change or improvement?

'Who touched me?' Jesus asked. It seems a strange request with crowds milling around. Many people brushed against him but the woman made contact in a different way. The same can happen in our relationships. We brush against many people but make real contact only with a few. Who are the people you have touched, and who has touched you? What difference has this made to you and to them?

Jesus said to the woman, 'Your faith has made you well'. What difference does it make to you that you have faith? In what ways does your faith make you well? - John Byrne OSA
