33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Of that day or hour, no one knows. (Mark 13:32)
When Jesus said that "no one knows" when the Second Coming would happen, was he saying that even he didn't know? It sure seems that way. Maybe he was reminding us that he had submitted to the limitations of being human, just like us. Yes, he was fully divine, but he was also fully human. And that entailed certain limitations. This is why Luke tells us that Jesus was always increasing in wisdom "before God and man" (Luke 2:52). Today, however, Jesus knows when he will come again. The problem is, we still don't know!

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (continued)

St. Francis when he was working in the garden, a friar asked, "What would you be doing now if you knew that Jesus was coming back today?" Francis replied, "I would keep hoeing my garden." Francis knew he was trying his best to be ready, and there was nothing more he could do. The point is, Jesus will come. So our best answer is the same as it has always been: be ready.
