7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. (Luke 6:37) Jesus couldn't have been clearer. If you want to avoid condemnation, don't condemn other people. Let's say you see a rumped, grizzled person sleeping on a park bench.
You wonder how he got there. You wonder why he isn't trying to fix his life. You begin to wish he weren't there.
Jesus says, "Don't condemn him." Or you are listening to the news when a story about a politician you don't like comes on. You feel your shoulders tighten, and you think of all the ways this person is misguided. You recall the evil policies he or she has supported, and you feel disgust for this person. Jesus says, "Don't condemn." (The Word Among Us)
