HOLY SOULS

Mass Wed Mar 13th at 8pm, in Rathowen. Adoration and Confessions from 7-8pm.

1st Sunday of Lent

You will be saved. (Romans 10:9)

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells us that confessing that Jesus is Lord and believing in his resurrection will bring us to the ultimate goal of our lives: heaven itself. But this is one of those "gospel truths" that comes with an asterisk attached. We recite the Nicene Creed at every Sunday Mass. It's another version of Paul's confession of faith. So if we say it with faith, isn't that all we need to do to get to heaven? Not exactly. Remember, even the devil believes that Jesus is the "son of the Most high God" (Luke 8:28). Remember too that Jesus warns us, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 7:21).

Clearly, there must be more to this than simply reciting the truths of our faith. Something has to happen inside of us as well. Something has to come into us to change us and make us become more and more worthy of the gift of eternal life. And that something is faith. (The Word Among Us)
