5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

... that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father. (Matthew 5:16)

Be salt that's really salty; be a lamp set on a high stand. Those are tough standards to live by! This passage might make you feel like you have to get out on a soapbox and start preaching on a street corner—right now. Of course, you should talk to people about your faith, but it's not the only way to be a salty, light-filled, positive influence. One of the most effective ways you have an impact on the world around you is in how you behave. Your actions speak volumes to family, friends, neighbors, even strangers.

Your actions speak volumes to family, friends, neighbours, even strangers. Jesus himself says that our "good deeds" help people see and glorify God (Matthew 5:16). Isaiah goes so far as to say that actions like sharing what we have and not turning our back on people have the power to turn the gloom around us into "midday" (58:10). If you look around, you're certain to see areas that seem dark. Gossip might be out of control in your neighbourhood. At home, your spouse might be deflated by a setback at work. A child you know might be the victim of bullying. (The Word Among Us)

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

1499 "By the sacred anointing of the sick and the prayer of the priests the whole Church commends those who are ill to the suffering and glorified Lord, that he may raise them up and save them and indeed she exhorts them to contribute to the good of the People of God by freely uniting themselves to the Passion and death of Christ."⁹²
