*“Of God we cannot say all that ought to be said
In those matters, that concern God, to confess our Ignorance is always great knowledge”.*

October month of the Rosary

Traditionally the month of October has always been dedicated to the praying of the Rosary, for countless generations, the family Rosary was the main stay of family prayer as well as individual prayer. The great saints such as St. Dominic, St. Louis Demonfort have had a great devotion to our Lady and the Rosary, while this great treasure of the church has lost some of its appeal, the ritual and the form of the prayer contains within it great wisdom and a simple form of contemplation (now a days referred to as mindfulness). So we invite to take the 30 days of October as a kind of mini retreat in your home and as individuals.

Yoga

Yoga starts in Rathowen Community Centre on Thursday, 30th September at 7pm for six weeks. Price is €10 per person per session, due to Covid regulations, people are asked to bring their own mats. No booking necessary just attend on the night.
