A sign of a vibrant Christian Community is the willingness of its members to offer their talents and time in the service of the church community. There is no end of opportunities for members of the parish to become actively involved from reading at mass, Eucharistic Members, choir, altar society, counters and collectors, altar servers, Pastoral Council, Finance Committee, church maintenance, Baptism team. We hope to invite and make use of the talents and goodness of the community to help make a parish family as involved and responsible as the future will demand. Stay tuned!
