November and remembering our dead.

It is a central feature of our christian faith to remember and pray for the dead, here in ireland that connection to all those who have gone before us is still very much alive thank god, as can be seen by the number of people who visit the graveyard, have masses said and maintain family graves. During the month of November it is a holy work to visit the graves of those we loved and to pray for the repose of their souls. Later in the month we will have a service of remembrance for all those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. A book of the dead will be placed in the church, you are invited to write the names of your loved ones in these books and they will be prayed for at each mass.
