OCTOBER MONTH OF THE ROSARY.

The month of October has for many centuries being dedicated to the praying of the Rosary, the prayer that was once recited in every catholic home and the prayer that sustained the Church during the penal laws. The Rosary traces its beginnings to St Dominic who spread the practice throughout Europe along with his monks, why not reintroduce this ancient and effective pray into your homes this October, praying as a family is a powerful gift.

SAINTLY WISDOM- PRAYERLESSNESS.

The person who dont pray is like a chicken or a turkey, which can't rise into the air. They may fly a little but they always fall to the ground, they scratch the earth and get deeper and deeper in it, they cover their heads with it and dont seem to take pleasure in anything else. The person who prays on the other hand is like the fearless eagle, and seems always to want to get closer to the Sun.

St John Vianney.

CATHOLIC HUMOUR.

A couple drove down a country road for several mile without saying a word to each other. An earlier discussion had led to a heated argument and neither would concede their position. As they pass a barnyard they say Mules, Goats and Pigs, the husband asked sarcastically, relatives of yours?

Yep the wife replied, "In-laws"

PLACES OF PILGRIMAGE IN IRELAND.

Though we live on a relatively small island there is so much of its religious history and tradition that we are unaware of, a treasure trove of spiritual nourishment and interesting history. A common thread that has run through Christianity for 2000 years has been the pilgrimage, a need to go on a journey to a holy place, to encounter God in a particular way., the journey being as important as the destination. Hers are 3 pilgrimage sites worth a journey to, A. Clonmacnoise Co Offaly, B. Glendalough Co Wicklow C. Downpatrick Co Down.

THEOLOGY TITBITS- MORTAL SIN.

So what is a mortal sin?, the Catechism of the Catholic church has this to say " is sin whose object is grave matter and which is also committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent" this sin cuts the sinner off from God's sanctifying grace until it is repented in confession.
