MONTH OF THE DEAD.

In the life of the Church the month of November has always been a time of remembrances of our dead, when we recall all those who have gone to their eternal reward. In a particular way we call to mind all those who may have no person to pray for them and are most in need of all our prayers. Nov is all saints day and a Holy day of obligation, The 2nd is all saints day. Please note Mass times for both Churches for All Saints.

WHAT THE SAINTS HAVE TO SAY!! DEATH

*Our brethren who are freed from this world by the Lord's summons are not to be mourned, since we know they are not lost to us but only sent on ahead of us. Departing from us, they proceed us as travellers, just as navigators are accustomed to do.... (St Cyprian of Carthage)
Fear of death is for those who aren't willing to go to Christ..... (St Cyprian of Carthage)*

CATHOLIC HUMOUR.

A Catholic priest is enjoying a large breakfast with his friend the Rabbi. The priest is enjoying some smoked bacon. The priest says to the Rabbi "when are you going to break down and enjoy some of this bacon, it's great! Why would God create something so good and not want you to enjoy it?" The Rabbi smiled and said "On your wedding day Father".

INDULGENCES FOR ALL SOULS.

From Twelve noon on the 1st of Nov until Midnight on Nov 2nd, all who confess, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions can gain one plenary indulgences, by visiting a Church and reciting one Our Father and the Apostles creed for the dead.

WHAT IS AN INDULGENCES?

Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose sin has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under certain conditions either for themselves or the departed.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

For the month of November a book of remembrance will be in the Church sanctuary for all those who wish to record the names of their loved ones who have died in Christ. All those whose name is mentioned at all of the Parish Masses. May they rest in peace of Christ.

REST IN PEACE.

The prayers of the Church are asked for the repose of the soul of Brian Nerney, Coraley, who died during the week. may he rest in the peace of Jesus Christ.
