• Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel •

1. The symbolic gesture of breaking and sharing bread and sharing the cup, that Jesus made at the Last Supper, symbolised the offering of himself that he would make on Calvary giving his life for others. Sometimes we also are called to give our lives for others. We can do this grudgingly or with a generous heart. What difference has it made for you when you were able to give yourself freely?

2. In his encyclical letter Deus Caritas Est Pope Benedict XVI wrote, 'A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is essentially fragmented.' What has helped you to be aware of the importance of the link between the Eucharist and your lifestyle?

3. Jesus involved his disciples both in the preparation for the Last Supper and in its celebration. Recall times when you had a heightened sense of awareness of participation and involvement in the Mass. What helped to give you this awareness? Are there lessons for these special experiences that you can bring with you to the routine Sunday Mass? - John Byrne OSA (INTERCOM)

Thought for the Day

The sense of meal is what makes a family house a home. It is a place of loving encounters that deepens family and friendship ties. Hence, at meals bellies are not just being filled, at meals memories, laughs and joys are shared. It is a profound gesture of togetherness, harmony and peace as the meal is never shared with a perceived enemy without reconciliation first. This is my African sense of meal. The Eucharistic meal in the same way is a Peace meal of reconciliation with God and our brothers and sisters. It is a meal of God's family, where the Church is the home of sharing for all. - Michael Onun Ogwuche (INTERCOM)

Sunday Scriptures

First Reading - This reading describes the solemn ratification by Moses and the people of the covenant God made with them on Mount Sinai.

Second Reading - Through the redeeming work of Christ God has entered into a new and eternal covenant with his people.

Gospel - This describes the preparation and the celebration of the Passover meal Jesus ate with his disciples the night before he died.

An Exam Prayer

God stay close to me today
Guide my study and light my way.
Ease my nerves and comfort me
With peace and love so tenderly.
May I remember the things I need
And understand all I study and read.
May I strive to give my best
And do myself justice in each test.
May the topics I know and like appear
On the exam paper to lessen my fear.
And during the moments I may feel stressed
I'll try to remember the ways I'm blessed.
And if there are times that I feel at sea,
Help me to trust that you're here with me.
Amen.

A prayer for the end of Mass

Father, here in your house our roads come together and our paths meet. Here we lay down our differences and become one family. Here are in from the cold and experience a little of the warmth of human friendship and community. Grant that as we leave we may not take up our differences again. Rather let us try to live as brothers and sisters who care about one another. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eucharist

O Lord!

Look into our hearts this day and read us
Look into our souls this day and hear us
When we thrust out our hands for help - hold us
When we open our arms for love - embrace us
When we raise our eyes heavenward - speak to us
When we bow our heads to thee - bless us
When we give of ourselves - come to us.

Amen.

- Judith Ann Pounder
