SAINTLY WISDOM "MARRIAGE"

"There is a certain love deeply seated in our nature that imperceptibly knits together these bodies of ours...Nothing so welds our life together as the love of husband and wife. Marriage is a good in which the married are better in proportion as they fear God more chastely and more faithfully, especially if they also nourish spiritually the children whom the desire carnally" (St Domonic Savio)

A LITTLE THEOLOGY REINCARNATION!!

The Catechism of the Catholic church teaches " when the single course of our earthly life is completed, we shall not return to other earthly lives: There is no reincarnation after death. Salvation comes through Jesus Christ, who offered Himself as a sacrifice for the redemption of humanity, the concept of reincarnation suggests a continuous cycle of existences and rebirth dismissing the need for Christ's saving act and making the individual their own saviour. Salvation is from and through Jesus.

MONTH OF MISSION.

The term literally denotes sending and covers a variety of meanings, all somehow expressing the idea of going forth from one person to another in order to effect some beneficial change in their life. At the highest level are the divine missions of the Trinity, Jesus sent by the father, and the Spirit being sent by the Father and the Son, Christ then sent the Apostles to make disciples of all the nations. Their mission was to preach the Gospel, baptise, and teach the people to "observe all the command I gave you. The Apostles in turn personally and through their successors have been sending other faithful to continue the work of the master in preaching the good news to the human race, all the baptised are called to mission service.

LESSER KNOWN PATRON SAINTS.

Every good catholic knows that almost every human endeavour or community of persons has assigned to the a Patron saint, a person who in their own earthly life has some connection (however faint) with that activity or group, The Irish have St Patrick, hopeless cases have St Jude. Some less well known categories can also claim a patron, for example the patron saint of horses is St Eligius while St Andrew is the patron of fishermen. St Monica mother of the once troublesome St Augustine is patron of mothers, St Gianna of the unborn and Pilots have their own St Joseph Cupertino
