A little theology "Scripture & tradition"

For the protestant church scripture alone is expected while the catholic church asserts scripture and tradition, for us sacred scripture and sacred tradition are bound closely together, and communicate one with the other. For both of them flowing from the same divine well-spring, come together in some fashion to form one thing, and move towards the one goal, Sacred scripture is the speech of God, as it is put down in writing under the breath of the Holy Spirit, holy tradition transmits in its entirety the word of God which has been entrusted to the Apostles so that led by the Holy Spirit they may faithfully preserve, expound it by their preaching. The tradition here in question comes from the Apostles and hands on what they received from Jesus' teaching and example and what the Spirit says.

Saintly wisdom "Prayer & action"

"Those who pray should not come to God with fruitless or naked prayers. Petition is ineffective when it is a barren entreaty that beseeches God... For he who will give us in the day of judgement a reward for our labours and alms is even in this life a merciful hearer of the one who comes to Him in prayer with many good works". (Teresa of Avila)
