SAINTLY WISDOM 'WOMEN'

"I wish that men were as resolute as women- Anne Javouhey. " In three different ways, woman can fulfill the mission of motherliness: in marriage, in the practice of a profession that values human development... and under the veil as the bride of Christ" (St Edith Stein). " It is most laudable in a married woman to be devout, but she must never forget that she is a wife; and sometimes she must leave God at the altar to find him in her housekeeping". (St France of Rome)

A LITTLE THEOLOGY— TURNING THE OTHER CHEEK.

Catholic teaching on 'turning the other cheek' is not about passive acceptance of all evil, but about responding to personal insults and injustice with love and non-retaliation, rather than returning an act of violence with violence. It is a way to confront evil with courage and love, seeking to disrupt cycles of harm and potentially lead to the offender's conversion. The teaching extends to giving to the needy and going the extra mile in situations of infringement on personal rights, while recognizing that it does not negate the need for law enforcement of self-defence against criminal act aggression turning the other cheek does not mean you becoming a doormat.
