SAINTLY WISDOM 'THE BEAUTY OF GOD'

'God is not dependent on anything for his beauty, his beauty is not limited to certain times and aspects; but he is beautiful by himself, through himself and in himself. He is eternal beauty-not changing from one moment to the next constantly the same beyond all change or alteration, increase or addition. God being infinite beauty, the soul united to God draws upon itself the admiring and tender gaze of the angels full of desire ( Maximus the confessor)

FEAST OF ST BRIDGET.

HOPE AND PATIENCE'S

St Paul is a realist. He knows that life has its joys and sorrows that love is tested amid trials, and that hope can alter in the face of suffering... Yet in those very contexts, beyond the darkness we glimpse a light: we come to realise that the call to evangelisation is sustained by the power flowing from Christ's cross and resurrection. In this way we learn to practice a virtue closely linked to hope, namely patience... Saint Paul often speaks of patience in the context of our need for perseverance and confident trust in God's promises. Yet before all else, he testifies to God's own patience, as 'the God of all patience and encouragement. Patience one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit sustains our hope and strengthens it as a virtue and a way of life, .....(Pope Francis 'Spes non confundit')

A LITTLE THEOLOGY 'SECOND COMING'

The church believes and professes that Jesus Christ will return in glory at the end of time to judge the living and the dead, bringing about the final resurrection, the culmination of history, and the full establishment of God's kingdom. This event will be sudden and universal and marks the triumph over evil, not a secret 'rapture' as some fringe christians expect. Unlike the first coming in humanity the second coming will be a public visible event where Jesus will return in glory, The dead will rise from the dead, and their bodies will be transformed to be like Christ's, uniting with their soul forever. The church teaches the second coming as a blessed hope and not a cause of fear. We are called to live in a state of readiness and grace. The time is not known men or angels only the Father knows

WAKES IN CHURCHES

Following on from queries raised by many persons concerning the practice of using the local parish church for awake rather than the funeral home of private residences, bishop Paul has issued clear & binding instruction that the church is not permitted to be used for a wake, the removal the evening before the funeral with the usual sympathising is acceptable and a fitting expression of faith. For a full copy of the bishop's decision, go to the diocesan website.....
